ST. JAMES COMMUNITY LIFE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Introducing Our New Administrative Assitant

We are excited to welcome Maryl De Milo to St. James as the new administrative assistant. Maryl has a long history of working in ministry from being a Children's Director, Lay Counselor, Small Group Leader, and most recently a Spiritual Director. Because one of her biggest passions is walking alongside those who want to grow closer to God, she studied spiritual formation and soul care at Talbot School of theology. She hopes to prayerfully learn how to support the church and walk alongside others towards healing, growth, and discovering God's love in the midst of life. She enjoys reading lots of books and one fun fact about her is that she used to be certified in sword fighting for films and theater.

Monday Evening Prayer
